Homework #6

Project Information

What is the URL where your software can be tried out or downloaded? Describe any special instructions for using or installing the software (e.g.: Firefox browser only, Windows only, JRE must be installed, etc.) (approx 1/2 page)

Peter

User Stories Breakdown

For each user story due today, answer the following (total for all user stories due today, approx 2 pages):

- Which pair(s) of teammates worked on that user story's tasks?
- What do the relevant unit tests do?
- What problems, if any, did you encounter?
- How long did each task require?
- What is the current status (implemented? tested?)
- What is left to be completed?

Kyle and Josh

Diagrams Usefulness

For each spike and UML sequence diagram that you developed this week, answer the following (total, approx 1/2 page):

- Was the spike or diagram useful? Why or why not?

Taya

Diagrams Needed

Were there any diagrams that you wish that you had? Why or why not? (approx 1 page)

Nick

Refactoring

Briefly describe any refactoring that you did (approx 1 page)

Emerson

Working with the Customer

If you had to ask the customer any questions, indicate what those questions were and what the customer's response was. Briefly describe any surprises or requirement changes that you encountered. (If your customer does not answer your question within 24 hours, then note this and proceed as best as you can.) (approx 1/2 page)

Taya

Integration Tests

Briefly describe all integration tests that you did on the system, the test results, and any changes that you made (or will make) to the system as a result. (When you do these tests, don't be soft. Do a good job -- your goal is to build an awesome system!) (approx 2 pages)

Colin and Tudor

New Schedule

What is your new schedule for what to complete next week? What user stories will be done, what is your time estimate for each of these user stories? (approx 1 page)

Nick

Final Notes

In one sentence, briefly summarize whether your customer was willing and able to talk with you by email in a timely fashion. If you do not receive a response within 24 hours, proceed as best as you can without customer input.

Briefly summarize the contribution of each of your team members.
